McGraw's Men Seven Bases - Win Ninth in Row.

By W. O. McGEEHAN.

The Giants went through the Cincinfacility of a new knife cutting through a piece of cheese, which makes the einth consecutive victory for McGraw's reformed organization. The score of 3 to 1 was achieved chiefly through the recklessly brilliant base running of the Field Marshal Christy Mathewson of incinnati, late of New York, put in a Federal League battery and then retired to the visitors' dugout to wait the worst. It came. J. Marmaduke Moseley, half of the battery, pitched a nice, useful game and allowed only one hit more than Tesrenu. But the Giants the other half of the Federal League hattery operating for the Reds, couldn't keep the Giant base runners stationary once they got on.

The seventh inning furnished an example of how the Giants are travelling the bases these days. Burns sped down to first while Louden juggled a poke for just a fraction of a second. Herog best a perfectly laid bunt along the third-base line and Burns reached

Reds would have tied it right up a second if it had not been for reurate eye and the mighty hook njamin B. Kauff, the violet of the organization. McKechnie beat infield hit and stole second when ty made a rather woolly heave him off. Louden smashed a opportunities to to-day.

as a nice hit, and it should have had three men on the base:

The third and ultimate run, which was won mostly through base running, has been previously accounted for.

The lone run of the Reds was largely due to the work of Hal Chase, the pugnacious Prune Planter from California, Heinie Groh was passed by Tesrcau and stole his way to second. The Prune Planter sent him home with a spicy double to right centre, the longest hit of the afternoon.

Despite the pessimism of the sorrowful Cincinnati Citizen who is sentenced to travel with the team the Reds did not look at all bad yesterday. There are plenty of other teams in the National Lague who would have looked a whole lot worse. It must be taken into consideration that the Giants are playing baseball these days and they look a whole lot sweeter that any other organization in the league.

to clout in place of the big pitcher, but Larry argued his case, and won it, too. He rather felt that he could hit the offerings of Grimes, who held forth in the centre of the diamond for the Pirates, and he surely did. His wallop fell beyond the range of Max Carey, who specializes in making impossible catches look easy, and Olson ran home from second with the final type of the game.

Before Cheney struck the deciding blow the five thousand fans had some anxious moments. The Robins went out into the lead all well and good, scoring two runs by four well bunched hits in the sixth inning. They were unable to hold their advantage, how-Hinchman starfed the affray with his single, and then, after the venerable Hans Wagner had lifted to Stengel, Schulte got his two-base hit, sending Hinchman to third. A wild pitch scored Hinchman and put Schulte on third, from which point he scored when Bill Wagner sent the ball to Johnston. Doe Johnston had been retired on strikes before Wagner's wallop, and Cheney tossed out Grimes.

The Robins lead the National League in team hitting, and well indeed have they won their position. For free and straightaway clouting they outmatch any team in the league, but it might be well for the boys to brush up on efficiency in batting and how to make the most of their many hits.
